

A graphic of several interlocking puzzle pieces in a light gold color, arranged in a cluster behind the main text.

2023

YEAR IN REVIEW

2023 IN NUMBERS, PICTURES &
REFLECTIONS FROM THE CAA COMMUNITY

OUR WORK

IN NUMBERS

7

WEEKLY
PROGRAMS

182

CHILDREN & FAMILIES

76

VOLUNTEERS

Program highlights

SPRING/SUMMER:

- Outshine youth's barista training series + pop-up cafe at Oversea Chinese Mission, Chinatown
- Covenant Ballet Theatre of Brooklyn Residency at Walk With U Mentoring Program
- Weekly Caregiver Skills Training Support Group and Playgroup at Faith Bible Church Hope Center, Flushing

FALL/WINTER:

- Blue Hat bakes again with new location at Chinese Evangel Mission Church, Chinatown
- CAA Art Therapy Residency at CMCC Mei Wah School, Chinatown

Event highlights

SPRING/SUMMER:

- Lunar New Year Festival
- CAA moves offices from 136 to 48 Henry Street, NY 10002
- Family Farm Day in NJ with Goldman Sachs' Community TeamWorks volunteer
- 8th Annual Achievement Ceremony

FALL/WINTER:

- Runderful 5K 2023: Landmark Race of the Year
- Thanksgiving Art Workshop at Chatham Square NYPL
- Hope for New York's His Toy Store

REFLECTIONS FROM CAA'S COMMUNITY

OUR COMMUNITY

“Although both my children have special needs, they get equal access to education in school, and receive support from our community, through Center for All Abilities.”

-JOYCE LIN
*Mom of 2 teens in CAA’s Music,
Art, and Vocational Training Programs*

MY FRIENDS

“My friends love at all times. I enjoy running with them, especially under NYC’s bridges.”

-YU CHEN

CAA Program Participant & Project Assistant

POSITIVE CHANGE

“We’ve made a huge move, and every change has been positive.”

-SAMI CASE,
CAA’s Walk With U Mentoring Program Coordinator

HERE'S TO 2024

WONDERFULLY MADE . WONDERFULLY MADE . WONDERFUL

WONDERFULLY MADE . WONDERFULLY MADE . WONDERFUL